Julie Katz Re-elected as UDIA National President

Julie Katz was re-elected unopposed as National President of the Urban Development Institute of Australia (UDIA) at the Institute's recent annual general meeting.

"I am delighted to continue as National President and look forward to pursuing the interests of the UDIA membership in 2013." Ms Katz said.

With the Federal Election fast approaching, 2013 will be an important year for Australia's development industry.

"UDIA is determined to keep issues such as housing supply and affordability on the Federal agenda", said Ms Katz

"Australia needs to plan for the future by addressing the nation's housing shortage and infrastructure shortfall. We need to prepare not just for this generation but for the generations to come", said Ms Katz.

Ms Katz will be joined on the UDIA National Executive by:

Cameron Shephard	-	Vice President
Michael Corcoran	-	Vice President
Brent Hailey	-	Treasurer
Ian Marker	-	Secretary
Peter Sherrie	-	Immediate Past-President
