UDIA National Finalists Announced

The Urban Development Institute of Australia's (UDIA) 2015 National Awards for Excellence finalists have been released, with the winners to be announced at the UDIA Calibre Consulting National Awards for Excellence Gala Dinner on Thursday 19th March at the Star in Sydney.

The UDIA National Awards for Excellence is a prestigious program that has been dedicated to the recognition and celebration of high quality urban development projects throughout Australia since their introduction in 1996.

"The 2015 UDIA National Awards for Excellence finalists are exceptional examples of the best urban development projects in Australia. The projects showcase the highest standard of urban form, architectural design and quality of finish," said Cameron Shephard, UDIA National President.

UDIA would like to congratulate all the 2015 UDIA National Award finalists and wish them luck at the UDIA Calibre Consulting National Awards for Excellence Gala Dinner.
