Neve Pask Recognised for Distinguished Service

Neve Pask, one of Australia's most respected property developers, was presented with the prestigious Urban Development Institute of Australia (UDIA) Allen Vogan Distinguished Service Award at the 2016 UDIA Rivergum Homes Group National Awards For Excellence in Adelaide on Thursday 10 March.

"Mr Pask is a remarkable individual who has dedicated nearly fifty years to the urban development industry, through the foundation of his company Pask Group." said Michael Corcoran, UDIA National President.

Since its establishment in 1969 in Redcliffe Peninsula, north Brisbane, Pask Group has expanded, with development activities occurring in Brisbane City, Redland Bay, Logan, Caboolture, Pine Rivers, Gold and Sunshine Coasts, Mackay, Airlie Beach and in the late 1990s, Melbourne.

"Mr Pask is an inspiring individual who has demonstrated sincere enthusiasm and passion for property and the development industry," said Mr Corcoran.

"I am truly humbled to congratulate such an outstanding recipient of the UDIA Allen Vogan Distinguished Service Award."

Neve Pask has been recognised for his contributions to the Australian urban development industry with a number of awards including; the Centenary Medal, a UDIA Lifetime Achievement Award, and Platinum Status at the UDIA following 35 years of membership.

Pask Group is a family owned company and a leading Australian developer known for its quality residential communities that generations of Australians are delighted to call home.
